

Curriculum vitae

Prof. Dr. med. Michael Zemlin, MHBA

Director, Department of General Pediatrics and Neonatology, Saarland University Hospital

Deputy Medical Director of the Saarland University Hospital

Medical Director of the School for health professions, Saarland University

Medical Director, Center for Prevention and Child Care Saarland and Rheinlandpfalz

- 1987-1988 Voluntary social year in France with mentally handicapped youths
- 1988 – 1995 Medical School, Free University of Berlin
- 1995 – 2001 Specialist training, university children's clinic Free University of Berlin.
- 1998 Dissertation; PhD supervisor: Prof. Dr. H. Stein, Institute of Pathology
Free University of Berlin
- 2001 – 2003 Feodor Lynen Fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, USA
- 2003 – 2016 Department for Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine,
Philipps University of Marburg
- 2008 Habilitation for pediatrics
- 2013 – 2015 Master's degree in "Health Business Administration"
Friedrich-Alexander University of Erlangen-Nuremberg
- since 2016 Director of the Department of General Pediatrics and Neonatology
Saarland University Hospital, Homburg
- since 2017 Deputy Medical Director, Saarland University Hospital
- since 2020 Member of the Ethics committee of the Saarland Medical Association
- since 2021 Chairperson of the VI-Screen research consortium
(Federal Ministry of Education and Research)
- since 2021 Vice President of the Society for Neonatology and Pediatric Intensive Care
Medicine
- 2022 Co-founder of the Center for Digital Neurotechnologies Saar, Chair: Daniel
Strauß