

Description & Motivation

for a GradUS global-funded activity

Doctoral researchers from Saarland University are eligible to apply for the funding opportunities by GradUS global, which aim to support their international mobility, exchange, cooperation, and career development. The funding by GradUS global is sponsored by Saarland University's Presidency under the responsibility of the Vice-President for Internationalization and European Relations to further promote the internationalisation of doctoral research at Saarland University.

Please complete this document with the requested information and explain your motivation for participating in the activity described. All information must be provided within the specified framework of this document. It is not permitted to add additional pages.

1. Personal information

Last Name:

First Name:

E-Mail:

Date of Birth:

2. Description of the activity/conference

Please describe the activity for which you apply for financial support from GradUS global and list the names of people involved:

Name: ,

3. Description of your motivation and the significance of the activity

Please describe your personal motivation and the significance of the activity for your Ph. D. project.
References should be included. (0.5-1 page):

Name: _____,

4. Expected costs of the activity¹

Expected costs for travel:

Expected costs for accommodation:

Other expected costs (e.g. conference fee, poster) (if applicable):

5. Alternative funding for the activity

Please explain why funding from other grant-giving bodies, specifically (but not exclusively) the Erasmus+ programme or the DAAD's Kongressreisenprogramm was not available or not feasible.

6. Signature

With our signatures we confirm that the information in this document is true. We are aware that the application will be excluded from the selection process if the information provided proves to be false.

Date and place:

Date and place:

(Signature of applicant)

(Signature of Ph.D supervisor)

¹Please note that if the supported activity involves travels, these travels cannot be combined with more than five working days (plus weekend) that are spent as free-time or holidays (otherwise, the travel costs cannot be reimbursed as indicated by the Bundesreisekostengesetz).