

Enhancing language education in cross-border vocational education

This website focuses on how to best promote language education in border regions, especially in professional and vocational education. It offers practical guidance for developing plurilingual and intercultural competences in vocational settings.

The website resources will enable you to

- bridge the gap between language education and professional needs, and learn about cutting-edge cross-border vocational education strategies and techniques;
- access valuable resources to empower educators and learners with plurilingual and intercultural skills for vocational success;
- discover best practices and success stories from border regions.

Who is it for? Teachers, teacher educators and researchers, learners, both teachers and their students, and all professionals in vocational education in border regions.

www.ecml.at/crossbordervocationaleducation

Key resources at a glance:

EN FR

An online guide with interactive tasks and activities for educators in cross-border environments, working with learners in vocational education or with adults in professional education. Develop strategies and techniques for your cross-border language teaching and/or learning context!

A teacher and learner portfolio, based on the European Language Portfolio. Reflect on language learning and teaching and find strategies and techniques to enhance language education in cross-border vocational settings!

Get an insight into 5 border regions (Germany-France-Luxembourg-Belgium, Germany-Denmark, Poland-Czechia, Lithuania-Poland-Latvia, Sweden-Finland) and discover shared opportunities and challenges related to language education in cross-border vocational education settings!

A glossary – Understand key terms in language education in cross-border vocational education.

Start your cross-border journey now! Use this resource, share it with your networks, and help promote plurilingual and intercultural competences in vocational education!

The European Centre for Modern Languages (ECML) is a Council of Europe institution promoting excellence in language education in its member states.

www.ecml.at

