Subject Professor-Stockmann-Deutschlandstipendium

From October 2025 on, there will be a one-year scholarship awarded for the Master's degree course in Evaluation (MABLE) as part of the "Deutschlandstipendium" scholarship program. This covers two semesters. The funding amount is €300 per month for one year (€3,600 in total). The scholarship will be issued for the second year of study and for the first time in October 2025. The scholarship will be awarded based on the academic performance at Saarland University. The selection criterion is the grade point average after the first year of study. The following grades are included in this assessment:

- 1 Exam Module 1: "Introduction to Evaluation"
- 2 Online Seminar in Module 2: "Conducting and Managing an evaluation"
- 3 Examination results in in Module 3: "mail in exercise" and "inception report part I"

The three modules are equally weighted in the calculation of the arithmetic mean.

Information on the Deutschlandstipendium can be found at

Further information on the application process will be announced during the summer semester 2025.

Best regards,

Reinhard Stockmann
